

Jim Snyder, Ph.D. – Vice President - Finance

Jim has held key sales management positions in the automotive industry and has extensive experience and knowledge of both domestic and global markets. For more than 30 years, he directed global units in Brazil, Mexico, United Kingdom and the United States, which led to a career within the academic community as Professor and Department Chair of the Automotive Supply Management program at Northwood University.